

CALDERA
POWER SERVICES

SAFETY & EFFICIENCY CHECK LIST

Do you have:

YES

NO

Lights that dim or flicker when appliances turn on?

Fluorescent lights that flicker even after you change the tubes?

Bulbs that burn out frequently in specific fixtures?

Evidence of arcs, sparks, or flashes of bright light in the electrical system?

Sparks when you plug in appliances or switch on lights?

Sizzling or buzzing sounds emanating from the electrical system?

Wire insulation that is visibly damaged, cut, broken, or cracked?

Fuses that blow frequently, or circuit breakers that trip often?

Switch or outlet face plates that are hot to the touch?

Switch or outlet face plates that have become discolored?

Brown or black "smoke marks" around outlets?

More than one power strip/surge protector per room?

Outlets or switches that are loose, or inadequately secured?

Power cords that are loose in the outlet, or secured with tape?

Power cords with the "third prong" removed in order to fit outlets?

Extension cords that have been in use for more than a few weeks?

Bulbs that are the wrong wattage for their fixtures?

Do you know what the correct wattage is?

Sockets that wobble or twist when you screw in lights?

Can you easily plug in your holiday lights? Do they have a dedicated switch?

Ground Fault Circuit Interrupters (GFCI) for all outlets near water, to include bathroom, kitchen sink or outdoors (especially near a swimming pool or spa)?

If you checked any of the shaded boxes, call Caldera Power Services Today!
(626) 353-0764